AGENTS AND CANVASSEES

Made from $25 to $50 per week selling goods for B. G. RIDE-OUT CO., 10 Barclay street, New York.

Send for their Catalogue and terms. aug. 24, 1890.

J. W. You is the architect of the $80,000 court house to be built at Cambridge. Bellaire talent will figure quite extensively in the handsome structure. —Bellaire Cor. Wheeling Register.

Monroe county talent, Mr. Correspondent, would sound better. Mr. You is a Monroe county boy.

Our Monroe friends will find it to their advantage to call and examine our goods when in the city. We will take pleasure in showing them our stock and insure the bottom prices and look after their interest generally.

WILEY & WITHERALD. 35 4 203 Belmont St., Bellaire, O.

This item in the Marietta Times of the 28th ult., relates to two former residents of Monroe:

"F. A. Lamping, Esq., of Marietta, in the city this week, doing jury duty. Joe Richardson has him in charge, and up to the hour of going to press, they had seen the elephant and his tail several times."

If your child requires a vermifuge do not resort to the old-fashioned all the latest discoveries of science. Fatter-son's Worm Syrup is the remedy we mean. It is made of the best material, composed of scientifically, pleasant to the taste, entirely safe, and always effective. Children cry for it. Sold by all dealers. 30 cents.

Sold by J. T. JONES, Woodfield, Ohio. I. H. PATTERSON, Prop'r, St. Clairsville, Ohio.

Hancock's lot in the tariff, in which he speaks of it as a "local question" once discussed in Pennsylvania, and as a subject in which the general Government seldom interferes, manifest, still more than his former correspondence has done, his ignorance of public questions. A trained soldier cannot well be a statesman—Cambridge Herald.

Your "ignorance" of what Hancock's letter on the tariff question contains, causes you to publish what you ought to know is wholly untrue, or you knowingly publish a falsehood.

"We would kindly suggest to our friends that we have been hanging away now for several months with very little money. This has been overlooked in the midst of the other schools at the fact is, friends, we need money and must have it. Come along, now, and pay us what you owe us, or something at any rate."

Thus speaks the Guernsey Times, and its experience is similar to other papers. The subscribers of the Enterprise seem to have forgotten us entirely during the past few weeks. —Barnesville Enterprise.

Now that tax-paying has commenced we hope THE SPIRIT'S subscribers will come up and pay their dues.

Literary Exercises of the Public Schools.

The regular literary exercises of the High School took place, Friday afternoon 29th inst. Of the twenty-eight essays presented, twenty-six were read.

The best three, were by Louis Okey, Hunter Armstrong, and Leslie Mason. Honorable mention should also be made of the productions of Alice Cassill, D. H. Patton, Adella Reef, Temple, Sinner, Mary Crawford and Estlin. Gatchell.

Occasionally the pupils are allowed to select their own subjects, but their essays are always composed under the supervision of the teacher. Exercises were also held in the other schools at the same time. We hope to be able, to create a lively interest in this important department of popular education.

I also take this opportunity to invite the parents to report to me, the names of any pupils who are not improving their time in their studies out of school. Gazette, please copy.

E. MAXWELL BOGGS, Sup't, Pub. Sch. Co.

We clip the following items from the Bellaire Independent of the 28th ult.:

Boston B. Roush, a former resident of this township, but now near Clarington, Monroe county, is looking for a farm in this vicinity.

George B. Fowler, of Noble county, last Sunday night, had two magnificent bay horses stolen. They were tracked about a mile Friday morning, where the thieves separated and went in opposite directions. There is no clue, whatever, to the thieves. The team was probably the most valuable pair of horses in the township, and worth perhaps $400.

Interest in the proposed Bellaire, Beaver Valley & Shawnee R. R. is reviving, and it is now thought that the probable route will be from Caldwell's Station on the R. & S. W. road, by Somerton, Sarahsville and thence by Belle's Gap to Duck Creek; thence over the divide between Duck and Mays Creeks and down the valley of the latter to the Muskingum river. This route runs through a fertile and rich country.

A startling affair took place near Pownall, last Saturday night. There was a gathering of young folks at the residence of a Mr. Brown. The man of the house retired for the night, leaving the young folks to take possession of the house. This route runs through a fertile and rich country.

For tickets, rates, and general information, call on Agents B. & O. R. R. or address W. E. REPPERT, Passenger Agent, No. 304 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio.

Thomas Gallagher, of Arkansas, is visiting his old home near Williamsburg at present. A correspondent of the Barnesville Enterprise says, Mr. Gallagher has been an invalid for years, and prior to his emigration to the present home. The past two years have restored him to perfect health which his numerous friends are glad to see. Nicholas Gallagher of Noble county and Adam Haren of Monroe county, are going with Mr. Gallagher to see the country and buy land; also a family from Bellaire accompany him to seek a future home in Jackson county Arkansas. Mr. Gallagher gives a pleasing account of the rapid emigration to his State, and says there is a good opportunity for anyone wishing to get a good home cheap in a State where law and order is strictly observed. —Noble Co. New York World, Oct. 28.

Judge Davis said yesterday of the defendant whom he had gone so far out of his judicial way to have arrested: "He published the fact that Gen. Garfield is a liar, and that is a libel." Of course Judge Davis did not mean what he appears to have said, that it is a fact that Gen. Garfield is a liar. But if it is libelous to express disbelief in the veracity of Garfield, the Grand Jury is likely to have work enough on its hands. The World has expressed such a disbelief; so has the Sun; so has the Herald; so has the Tribune; so has the Times; so, in fact, has almost every newspaper which was published in the city of New York, or in the State of New York, or in the United States of America, in the year 1873. The Poland Committee, while it did not in terms express this disbelief, necessarily implied this disbelief by stating that Garfield was a liar, which he had sworn that he did not do. If Gen. Garfield or any of Gen. Garfield's representatives desire to bring Gen. Garfield's reputation for veracity into court, there will be no lack of witnesses. If the obscure person who was yesterday arraigned before Judge Davis is ever actually brought to trial, Gen. Garfield will have an opportunity such as a man seldom has to show that he does not deserve the reputation for untruthfulness under which he has suffered for seven years. Let the accused bring into court as his witnesses all the editors who have so completely forgotten 1873, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895,
